COAL DEALERS HELD MEETING

Janesville Was Represented at Meeting Yesterday in Madison.

Certain local coal dealers were in Madison yesterday in attendance at a meeting of the Retail Coal Dealers' association of Wisconsin and Northern Illinois. About fifty delegates, all representative coal dealers from leading cities were in attendance. The officers of the association state that the object of the meeting is to extend its membership and that no attempt is to be made to regulate prices.

One of the main objects of the association is to prevent the shipment of coal from wholesale dealers to consumers, a practice which the retailers consider entirely wrong.

STEEL IS GOING UP

Largest Order for Steel Railway Rails Ever Given, Awarded to the Steel Rail Pool.

Pittsburg, Oct. 26.—Announcement was made today by officials of the Carnegie Steel company that the largest order for steel rails ever given had just been awarded to the steel rail pool. This order calls for 1,500,000 tons of rails at the prevailing price, $33 in Pittsburg, for delivery in 1900. Nearly every railroad in the country is interested in the order.

This order is simply the largest order for steel rails ever given. It means that the iron and steel market for next year will be tied up, all other things being laid aside to fill this order. Prices, which have been steadily advancing all the year, but which were thought to have reached their limit, will of necessity be higher, but how much, cannot be predicted.

The steel output of the entire country amounts to only a little more than 6,000,000 tons a year, and of this nearly one-fourth will be used next year for this order of rails alone. The output amounts to from 12,000,000 to 13,000,000 tons, and of this about 4,000,000 tons will be needed to fill this contract.

From these figures it will be readily seen that all other operations requiring steel will have to be curtailed next year, and in many instances they will be suspended.

The miner was rescued but was almost dead when gotten out of the mine. The burning of the shaft house will make it necessary to lay off 250 men as the mine will be tied up at least two weeks. The loss in wages and curtailment of production will amount to $50,000.

Fall River, Mass., Oct. 26.—The executive committee of the Cotton Weavers' association voted to grant the textile unions of the city a conference, at which their request for an increase in wages was discussed. The operatives demand a raise of 10 per cent, at least. About 28,000 operatives are interested, and the general belief is that they will get a raise, inasmuch as the print-cloth market is the strongest it has been in years.

His address, which was made to a large audience of Nebraskans from the country as well as the city, dealt almost altogether with the question of national expansion. He warned his hearers against the evils of militarism, "the natural result of the present policy of the administration."

BRITISH FLEET IS GETTING READY

INDICATIONS OF A GENERAL WAR IN EUROPE.

Germany Seems To Be an Ally of England, and France Sides with Russia—The Transvaal War May Involve the Powers in a Bloody Conflict.

London, Oct. 26.—It cannot be doubted, whatever may be the attitude, reticence, or even denial on the part of the officials, that superfluous proportions of the army dispatched under Sir Redvers Buller to the Cape points to the expectation of possible serious complications with foreign powers. Russia and France are the powers indicated.

To have the British fleet in readiness, and to dispatch a large force of soldiers to the Cape under a commanding officer and staff who would direct British arms in the event of European war, must be regarded as an extremely wise and prudent move on the part of the government.

The Persian Gulf is the point where it is most likely any active complications will center, as in the event of war the Suez Canal would inevitably be blocked, even with great fleets to keep it open. The cape is England's natural route and

England and Germany Combined

Sir George Grey's energy in sending troops from the cape to India and his good fortune in having them to send involved Britain's salvation at a most critical point in the Indian mutiny.

There is strong reason to believe that if the secret history of the present crisis could be told it would be found that the foreign offices of Great Britain and Germany have never been on more friendly terms. Germany and England are acting together, and hope to carry the moral support of America with them.

Three Important News Items.

TO RIGIDLY ENFORCE THE FACTORY LAWS

RIGHTS OF WOMEN AND CHILDREN ARE DISCUSSED.

Wisconsin Federation of Woman's Clubs in Session at Madison—Ex-Mayor Black of Milwaukee, and ex-Judge Small of Watertown, Dead—Late Wisconsin News.

Eau Claire, Wis., Oct. 26.—The convention of the Wisconsin Federation of Woman's clubs has a very much larger attendance than any previously held. The report of the credentials committee showed ninety-nine delegates from sixty-five clubs in forty-eight towns.

The day's sessions have been marked by the greatest interest and crisp businesslike style in reports and papers, while last night the clubwomen donned their best gowns and relaxed their minds to enjoy the recital and reception given by the Eau Claire Woman's club and attended by hundreds.

The sessions are remarkable for the frank and outspoken stand which the clubwoman took in the industrial question as it relates to women and child labor and the sweat shop, and hereafter the influence of over 400 women will be thrown for the "white list" of the Consumers' league and for the rigid enforcement of existing factory laws in this state.

The addresses, by members of the federation on different phases of industry problems led up to stirring talk by Mrs. Florence Kelley of New York, general secretary of the National Consumers' league, on whose suggestion the federation decided to establish a regular standing on industrial problems and to recommend that individual clubs appoint committees to co-operate with it. Another Federation committee will also be appointed to co-operate with the Wisconsin Bureau of Labor.

SHEBOYGAN SWARMS WITH FLIES

Residents of that City Treated With a Singular Visitation.

Sheboygan, Wis., Oct. 26.—For a short time yesterday the air in the western part of the city was filled with a peculiar small fly. It appeared in one large swarm, covering several city squares, and swept along like a cloud. Persons caught in the midst of the flies were covered with them, as they would have been with snow in a snowstorm. The huge swarm of flies was viewed with astonishment, and the streets were lined with those viewing the dark mass as it swept along. No one could be found who had witnessed a similar phenomenon prior to this time.

TWO NOTABLE BADGERS DEAD

Ex-Mayor John Black of Milwaukee and Ex-Judge David W. Small.

Milwaukee, Oct. 26.—Former Mayor John Black died at his home on Juneau avenue last evening. Mr. Black was 71 years of age and came to this country from France with his parents in 1844, settling near Lockport, N. Y. He entered the employ of a liquor firm in Lockport when still a boy, and after ward worked for a dry goods firm on a very small salary. Later he was employed to look after the sale of swamp lands and his commissions on those sales were the beginning of his fortune. He purchased an interest in the liquor firm which had employed him, but soon sold out and came to Milwaukee, engaging in the wholesale liquor business, out of which he made a fortune.

Cheese in Sheboygan County.

Sheboygan, Wis., Oct. 26.—There are in operation in this county 103 cheese factories, and it is estimated that the products will amount to over $1,000,000. The prices this year will average 25 per cent more than last year. At the beginning of the season cheese was bringing about 7 cents and it has sold as high as 12 cents. While there are 103 cheese factories in the county it is said there are but two creameries.

Ex-Judge David W. Small.

It was through the democrats that he was elected to the circuit bench for the district that then included Waukesha and Milwaukee, in 1869, and he was re-elected in 1875. Judge Small is survived by a widow, one son, George W. Small of Salt Lake City, Utah, and by two daughters, Miss Flora of Oconomowoc and Mrs. S. G. Weart of Winnetka, Ill.

NEEDS OF THE WEST

Sessions of Universalist Conference in Boston and Episcopal Mission Council in St. Louis.

Boston, Oct. 26.—At the Universalist conference a resolution was adopted instructing the board of trustees to revive the committee on the increase of the ministry, and that that committee shall labor to increase the number of students in the divinity schools, who shall be of the best character and ability. The conference also decided to appoint a committee to prepare plans for a uniform service of worship and report at the next general convention.

Rev. Rodney F. Johnson of Chicago, read a paper on "The Needs of the West." Much time was devoted to discussing the subject. Rev. M. Johnson declared that the convention could best serve the interests of the west by ending on the ablest men of the denomination to encourage the churches in existence.

Bishop Tuttle occupied the chair for a time as president, as Bishop Whipple was late in arriving. Rev. Dr. George H. The Philippine war was indirectly condemned.

FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH

Bodies of Nine Sheep Herders Disccovered After the Great Montana Blizzard—Worst Ever Known.

Great Falls, Mont., Oct. 26.—As a result of the recent blizzard nine men are known to be dead, and of these, five bodies have been recovered. With one exception all were sheep herders, and all were found lying in such positions as to indicate that they had stayed with their herds to the last.

It is probable that the death list is hardly begun. Bands of sheep without herders have been reported from various points in the storm district. Now the snow covers up everything on the prairie and the coolies, many of them more than 100 feet deep, with steep sides are filled with them. Without exception this was the most severe and most fatal October storm ever occurring in Montana.

MAY SMASH HIS FURNITURE

New Jersey Supreme Court Decides on Rights of a Husband

Newark, N. J., Oct. 26.—Under the law of New Jersey a citizen may smash the furniture in his own house, stand on his head, giving life like imitations of animals, and do generally as he pleases. A decision to this effect was handed down today by County Judge J. Franklin Fort in Newark. The case was that of William Andrews, sent to the penitentiary by Police Justice Sobalk on the complaint of his wife that he was "disorderly" in his own residence.

"A resident of the state of New Jersey is not a slave," Andrews' counsel, former Judge Henry, declared. "If he likes to do a war dance on his piano, the piano is his. He may kick the baby carriage around the room and pulverize the crockery to his heart's content."

The trial judge held an opposite view and sent Andrews to jail. Mr. Henry appealed the case and won it.

WITNESSES DID NOT APPEAR

Were Subpoenaed Here by Officers from Whitewater This Week

Several witnesses who were subpoenaed in Janesville to appear in Whitewater in the William O'Donnell case, did not attend the hearing held this week. They claimed they knew nothing about the case. O'Donnell of this city, who was examined at Whitewater on the charge of burglary, was held for trial, and in default of bail he will occupy a cell in the Elkhorn jail until next February.

He Translated the Italian Account.

An American who was in Venice when the news of the destruction of Admiral Cervera's squadron came, and who could not make out the Italian account very well, took the paper to a certain professor who speaks almost perfect scholar's English and asked him to translate it. The professor did so in excellent style until he came near the end, when, with a little hesitation, he said: "And the band played 'The Flag With the Stars on It,' and 'It Will Be Very Warm in the City This Evening.'"

MEANS TO RETAIN THE PHILIPPINES

Policy of the President in Regard to the Matter Is Now Positive.

M'KINLEY WILL ASK CONGRESS TO SUPPORT HIM IN IT.

The President Wants a Solid Front—He Believes with Dewey It Will Weaken the Rebels—Commission for Civil Control—Meeting Called to Consider the Question of Policy—Administration Expects Prompt Action from the Legislative Branch at the Coming Session.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Prompt declaration by congress in favor of asserting and maintaining complete sovereignty over the Philippines at whatever cost and for the most liberal kind of self government when the insurrection ends is what the president wants. It is also what the Philippine commissioners want.

There is a great deal yet for the president to do on his message and for the peace commissioners to do on their report, but this one important conclusion is certain. Notwithstanding assertions to the contrary, there is excellent authority for the statement that the president intends to make specific recommendations to congress in favor of holding the Philippines permanently and as to the form of civil government to take the place of the military as soon as the Tagals, who are now in rebellion, surrender.

To Face the Issue Squarely.

It is authoritatively stated that there will be no halfway measures suggested for the purpose of sidetracking the Philippine question until after the next campaign. The president will face the issue squarely and give congress the best information possible from his commissioner and other sources to support the position he has assumed. Of prime importance, in the opinion of the administration and the Philippine commissioners, is prompt action by congress, through resolution or otherwise, in favor of the policy adopted by the executive branch of the government.

Although members of the Philippine commission are not talking for publication, sufficient has been learned through observations they have made to their official friends to justify the statement that they will lay great stress in their report on one point.

Value of a United Front

"That is the desirability of prompt and emphatic declaration on the part of the congress which will convince those who are now in rebellion against the sovereignty of the United States and that all branches of the government are united on the question of the permanent control of the Philippines.

"Such action, in the opinion of Admiral Dewey and President Schurman, will be almost as effective as guns in ending the war in the Philippines. It is now only a question of the specific kind of government the president will recommend. He will be governed in his decision by the views of the Philippine commissioners. Their final decision will be the result of some days of deliberation.

Favors a Civil Control

"Meanwhile there will be conferences individually and jointly, with the president in order that he may absorb sufficient from their views to enable him to proceed with the preparation of his message. At least two members of the commission have spoken favorably of civil control in the Philippines by a commission rather than by a governor general.

ECONOMIC LEAGUE MEETING

Was Held Last Evening and Was of Special Interest

At the rooms of the Rock County Caledonian society last evening assembled members of the Economic League who held their first regular meeting. Disagreeable weather made the attendance small.

Rev. E. H. Pence presided in the absence of President Stanley B. Smith. I. F. Wortendyke presented the first paper, taking as his topic, "The Industrial Revolution."

Rev. W. A. Hall handled the subject, "National Economy and World Economy," which was followed by a paper read by Claude J. Hendricks entitled, "Private Property."

Judge Charles L. Field followed with the subject, "Free Contracts and Vested Interests."

Stanley B. Smith was made the leader for the next meeting and the same subject will be continued. The next meeting will be Nov. 1.

Henderson discussed the commercial value of the Philippines to America, and wound up with a glowing tribute to President McKinley.

JOHN D. KING AFTER GREEN GOODS MEN

FORMER LOCAL RESIDENT NOW WINNING FAME.

New York Herald Says That the Former Janesville Man is One of the Best of Postoffice Government Inspectors—Paper Prints His Likeness.

John D. King, a former well known Janesville man, is now winning fame as one of the government postoffice inspectors. Mr. King is now a resident of New York City and is at present waging a warm campaign against green goods swindlers who are using the United States mails in order to lure their victims.

The New York Herald prints an excellent picture of Mr. King and a lengthy article, a small portion of which reads as follows:

There is a crusade against the green goods fraternity in these United States, and I have no hesitancy in admitting it. We are bound to crush this corporate rascality if it takes the combined efforts of the best men in our service for a period of ten years. We are thoroughly in earnest, and the green goods men must go. For twenty years these scoundrels have grown prosperous on the gullibility of the credulous, and although the newspapers almost daily expose some of their methods, statistics show no abatement in the army of "come ons" from the rural districts.

In a recent report to the Post Office Department as one instance of the thoroughness of our methods to root out the evil, we suggested to the department to order posted in every post office in the eighty thousand or more throughout the country a placard which shall call attention to the fact that the penal code provides a penalty for entering into any correspondence with men who use the mails with intentions to defraud, and that to answer a green goods circular is itself enough to make the offender liable to the federal law. Whereas people may or may not read the newspapers, it is well known that every farmer scans the walls of his home post office for notices and that such a measure will be the means of deterring thousands from entering into negotiations with these clever rascals.

MacLean, was read, showing the receipts to have been $1,073.76 and the expenditures $1,027.51, leaving a balance on hand of $44.25, more than enough to pay the few small outstanding accounts. There is still uncollected for dues $82. The report was accepted and placed on file.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 26.—The Indiana Bankers' association and many leading financiers of adjoining states are in session here. The association adopted resolutions asking congress to enact a measure at its next session that will unify and fortify the currency and to vote measures of relief to banks organized under the federal statutes by reducing the tax on circulation one-half and giving them other privileges.

Giant Brass Combine Forming.

New York, Oct. 26.—A giant brass combine is being formed which, it is said, will comprise all the plants in the Naugatuck valley, Connecticut. The main office will be in this city. Among the concerns that are reported to have already entered the trust are the Waterbury Brass company of Waterbury, the Ansonia Brass and Copper company of Ansonia, the Coo Brass company of Torrington, and the Coo Brass company's new plant in Ansonia. This nucleus, it is said, represents an annual business of $25,000,000, and a joint plant of $6,000,000.

Canal May Not Open.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—A recommendation against the opening of the drainage channel will be made by the commission appointed by Gov. Tanner to pass upon the sufficiency of the channel construction. President Isaac Taylor of the commission alleges that while the channel proper is adequate to furnish the required volume of water, the Chicago river is inadequate to keep up the supply without exceeding the velocity of current fixed by the drainage board.

Masons Choose Officers.

Chicago, Oct. 26.—Al F. Schock of Ottawa, Ill., was elected eminent grand warder of the grand commandery of Knights Templar of Illinois, placing him in line of promotion which will make him eminent grand commander eventually. NEWS FROM THE COUNTY

Emerald Grove.

Mrs. John A. Jones was called last Saturday to Columbus, Wis., at which place her aged father lies at the point of death. The threshing season is about closed which has been about two weeks longer than common. Threshers report good profitable runs. Corn husking and plowing is in order and the fine weather is giving the farmers a good opportunity to complete the season's work in good time. The funeral of Miss Louise O. Larson who died on Sunday evening was held on Tuesday afternoon. The Rev. O. J. Kvate of Orfordville conducted the services. The interment was in the cemetery in the village. She would have been thirteen years of age had she lived till November 2 next. Her sudden death was a sad bereavement to the family as well as to a large circle of friends and schoolmates by whom she was dearly beloved. To the sorrowing mother, brothers and sisters the community extends its tenderest sympathy. The W. H. Jones family are spending a few days in Chicago. Harry Van Galder of La Prairie is moving on the late Col. E. Inman farm in Bradford. Mrs. J. H. Gillies of Janesville, and Miss Maggie Gillies of Evansville were callers in the village on Tuesday.

NO STRIKE ON THE BIG FOUR.

Men and Managers Reach an Agreement on Wages.

Indianapolis, Ind., Oct. 26.—After a conference between General Manager Schaff, General Superintendent Van Winkle of the Big Four and the firemen, an agreement on wages was reached Wednesday, though the scale is kept secret. The committee from the Brotherhood of Trainmen, after a conference with the same officials, returned home with a proposition from the company which will be submitted to the local lodges, but is not announced. Mr. Van Winkle says there is not the least danger of a strike on the Big Four and that the meeting was a love feast.

Our Claims in Samoa.

Washington, Oct. 26.—It is learned on excellent authority that the United States is standing pat on the Samoan question, and is merely waiting for Great Britain and Germany to come to some basis of agreement as to the partition of the islands. This country, it is said, has not the slightest desire to secure any territory in that part of the Pacific ocean. It merely desires to preserve its right to the important naval station at Pango Pango, and in case the islands are broken up will be quite satisfied to take the little island of Tutuila, which is only a background for the harbor and naval station, and which could in no sense be looked upon as territorial expansion.

Representative of Aguinaldo on His Way to America.

PEACE TERMS ARE OUTLINED.

Recognition of the Present Native Government in the islands, Under a Protectorate of the United States, Is Demanded.

New York, Oct. 26.—A Washington dispatch to a local paper says: "Senator Antonio Regidor, now in London, will sail for the United States within three weeks, and a fully accredited representative of Aguinaldo will present to President McKinley new terms for ending hostilities and reconstructing the government of the island. The coming of the representative is kept a close secret by the administration, but from a high authority it is learned that these are the exact terms Aguinaldo desires:

One—Absolute free trade between the United States and the Philippine islands, carrying with it the fullest commercial favor between the two countries.

Two—Perfect religious freedom, as now exists under the government of Aguinaldo, the same being a concession made by him to the wishes of the United States.

Three—Coaling stations for the United States upon all important islands of the archipelago, to be selected by the United States and ceded outright forever by the Filipinos. This would include Manila.

Four—Military reservations at Manila, Iloilo, Panay, Mindoro, Negros, Masbate, Samar, Mindanao and such other islands as may be determined upon by both governments.

Five—The employment of United States officials in the customs and all other internal branches of the government, to be selected by the United States and paid by the Filipino government.

Six—The introduction of the American police system.

Seven—The establishment of a judiciary as now exists in the island of Cuba.

Eight—The reconstruction of the entire Filipino government upon lines as nearly consistent with those prescribed by the constitution of the United States and adapted to the requirements of the natives.

Nine—Recognition of the Filipino government as an independent republic, under a protectorate of the United States.

Senator Regidor will have plenipotentiary powers to treat with the United States government upon all of these points in order to reach an agreement by which hostilities may cease.

President McKinley has been familiar with the terms stipulated by the Filipino government for more than two months.

THIS DAY IN HISTORY.

1331—Aboulfeda, Mohammedan historian, died in Syria.
1723—Sir Godfrey Kneller, who painted the portraits of all the monarchs and noted habitues of the court from Charles II to George I, died; born 1645.
1742—Charles Francis Dupin, astronomer, born near Chaumont, France.
1759—George James Danton, the famous French revolutionist, was born at Arcis-sur-Aube; guillotined at Paris, April 5, 1794. While minister of justice Danton announced that in order to stop the progress of the Prussian army of invasion "we must strike the royalists with terror." Acting upon the suggestion, the mob broke into the prisons and engaged in dreadful massacres. It was Danton who said, speaking of the captive king: "We have no right to be his judges, it is true. Well, we will kill him."
1833—Adelaide Phillips, celebrated singer, born at Stratford-upon-Avon; died 1882.
1871—Major General Robert Anderson, hero of Fort Sumter, died at Nice, Italy; born 1805.
1892—Zenas King, noted bridge builder, died at Cleveland.

ILLEGAL WORK STOPPED

Mayor Richardson and the six aldermen who voted at Monday night's council meeting to put a stop to illegal street work, rendered the people of Janesville the most substantial service that has been given them in many a year. Not only did they show the disposition to live up to their agreements, but they showed that they were not afraid to do their duty and enforce the regulations under which the city is run. In the future "blanket orders" will not be tolerated and a repetition of the Fourth Avenue job will not be allowed.

The charter covers the case completely, providing that all "paving or repaving, macadamizing or re-macadamizing, grading or re-grading, or building or rebuilding shall be done by special assessment only."

Fourth Avenue was not "repaired" it was macadamized. Therefore the council interfered.

Resolutions defining "repairs" and clearly setting forth the mode of procedure for the future were drawn by City Attorney Burpee at Alderman Gilkey's request and the council adopted them. In the future all work must be done in conformity with these resolutions.

This is as it should be. "Right wrongs no man."

The Milwaukee Sentinel publishes an extended editorial in support of the theory of the use of a meter by municipalities in contracting for electric street lights, rather than a set price per lamp. The Sentinel argues well. If a lamp is not burning, the people should not be paying for it. The contractor agrees to furnish light, not lamps; and unless he does so, he should receive no money.

Under the charter no street-work can be done "under the direction of the alderman of the ward." The street commissioner has charge of all street work, and orders for "repairs" must be explicit in the future.

The Gazette does not publish anonymous communication, but it has no objections to their use by other papers. They can do as they please, so they need not get mad and swear whenever the subject is mentioned.

Milwaukee Journal—Governor Scofield shines by comparison with Pingree. Wisconsin's war claims were all settled and paid long ago. Michigan has just received a first small payment on account.

The St. Louis brewery that named its porter "Black and Tan" showed its nerve, but when it openly advertised the brew in Milwaukee it exhibited bravery absolutely funstoneque.

It isn't Bryan's fear of militarism that impells him to speak. It is his fear for the future of Bryanism. Neither policy, however, will be inflicted upon the people, so his talk does no harm.

"The man who edits The Gazette" is pleased to see that his views are not endorsed by certain other Janesville people, and construes this fact to mean that he is doing exactly right.

If the Milwaukee Journal should change its time of publication from evening to morning, and embrace the republican faith, it would fill a long felt want.

Not the man with the hoe, but the man with the wheel, edits the Gazette—Recorder.

Thank you. If you would ride a wheel yourself, you would have less bile and more "horse sense."

A man named Frost is in a Havana jail charged with murder, thereby disproving the statement that a killing frost is unknown in Cuba.

One by one the roses fall. Mexico, it is now announced, is likely to adopt the gold standard.

The people who are to stand the expense of rebuilding the streets in front of their property will now pay their assessments with much greater grace. The council has kept its faith with them and will continue to do so.

And, regardless of all the other interesting events of the past few months we hope that you have not forgotten the damage suits.

The "new lock stock and barrel" will hereafter be delivered to the owner of the gun that needs "repairs" C. O. D.

The mayor and council have taken the right course, and should now how to the line.

Steyn's proclamation annexing the northern section of Cape Colony, has excited only derision here, but it is said on authority that the Cape Dutch in the annexed territory have already risen in arms against the British government and that

COLONEL BADEN POWELL.

This officer is in command of the British forces at Mafeking, which is now being besieged by the Boers under Gen. Conje. He has a regiment of four riders resembling Roosevelt's. He was by valued colonel for gallantry in the Matabeleland campaign.

Steyn's proclamation is intended to relieve them of the consequences of their revolt.

It is growing on the people of London that the British forces in Natal are in a bad way, whatever the war office may suppress and, however euphemistically it may dress out what it seems fit to give to the public. Lists of dead and wounded tell the difference between

GENERAL SIR GEORGE STEWART WHITE. General White was the officer in command of the British at Ladang, who made the successful retreat of Gen. Buller from Glencoe. Both forces are now joined near Ladang awaiting an attack from the combined Boer army under Gen. Joubert.

London, Oct. 26.—[Special Cablegram to The Gazette]—A dispatch to the Central News dated Monday explains why Xule left Glencoe and Dundee. It appears that the battle of Glencoe Friday, which was reported as a brilliant victory for the British, was notable only for bloodshed and entirely unconvincing.

"At Glencoe we were facing the fresh, undefeated Boers, who largely outnumbered us. Sunday the British camp moved to Glencoe; Monday, learning of the victory at Elandlaagte, we evacuated Glencoe, without the enemy observing our movement."

Boers Claim Army of 100,000 Men

London, Oct. 26.—According to a Brussels dispatch Dr. Leyds, the diplomatic agent of the Transvaal in Europe, has issued a statement that the Boers have now nearly 100,000 men in the field, made up as follows:

Artillery.....	1,350
Police.....	1,750
Orange Free State troops.....	35,000
Natal Boers.....	3,000
Bechuanaland and Rhodesian Boers.....	8,000

Dutch-Belgians.....	6,000
Irish.....	2,000
Scandinavians.....	1,000

W. C. T. U. MEETING IS ENDED.

Action Taken Looking to Relief for Seventh Day Adventists.

Seattle, Wash., Oct. 26.—The prize banner for the greatest proportionate gain in parlor meeting work of the W. C. T. U. during the year was awarded to Ohio. This department aims to interest the conservative classes of society by social means, the meetings being held in homes and the audiences gathered by invitation.

Animated discussion was provoked at the morning session by the introduction of a resolution by Mrs. S. M. I. Henry of Michigan, herself a Seventh Day Adventist, protesting against laws which interfered with such persons as elected to observe some other day than Sunday as the weekly Sabbath. The following resolution was adopted: "Resolved, That we favor the amendment of all state Sunday laws which do not contain the usual exception for those who keep the seventh day."

The executive committee, to which has been referred the matter of selecting next year's meeting place, met last night, but made no selection. It will meet again today, and there is every indication that Indianapolis will be named.

HOUSE PRESENTED TO DEWEY.

Admiral Receives the Deed for the Gift.—Total Cost $50,000.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The house on Rhode Island avenue recently purchased for Admiral Dewey by popular subscription was formally turned over to him Wednesday by Assistant Secretary Vanderlip and United States Treasurer Roberts of the Dewey home committee. The purchase price was about $50,000. Two subscriptions were received Wednesday, which completed the payment, including the expenses incident to the project.

Plea for Better Preachers.

Boston, Mass., Oct. 26.—The Universalist conference Wednesday considered the needs of the west. In his paper on the subject the Rev. Rodney F. Johnson of Chicago said: "The general convention can do best for western interests, not by attempting to start new movements, but by sending the ablest men of the denomination to cheer and encourage the churches. What is needed above all else is a better class of ministers."

MANAGER MYERS ATTACHES OPERA CO.

CLAIMS THREE HUNDRED DOLLARS DAMAGES.

Attorney M. O. Mount Served Papers on the Baldwin-Owen Opera Company at Whitewater Last Night—They Gave Janesville the Slip, Preferring to Play in Whitewater.

P. L. Myers, manager of the Myers Grand opera house served papers on the Baldwin-Owen opera company at Whitewater last evening through Attorney M. O. Mount, of the local legal firm of Fether, Joffris & Mount. Manager Myers claims $300 damages as the result of the company cancelling their three nights' engagement at the Janesville playhouse which engagement was to have commenced last evening.

The Baldwin-Owen company allege that their show was not properly billed in Janesville and that Whitewater is a better show town. Manager Myers says that the show would have done a good business here and that the whole size of the situation was that the company preferred Whitewater to Janesville.

When Attorney Mount arrived last evening at the Whitewater opera house the first act of the opera, "Olivette" was well under way. But this made no difference to the local legal light who lost no time in entering the playhouse via the stage door entrance. With his right hand filled with legal documents Attorney Mount sought the Baldwin-Owen company managers.

The Janesville man's first difficulty behind the scene was in passing a dozen pretty chorus girls who insisted in knowing all about the little affair. These young ladies were soon brushed aside and after a five minutes earnest search Attorney Mount found the proprietor and at once leveled on the show property. A settlement will, it is likely, soon be made.

TESTING A NEW SHELL.

The Isham Projectile Astonishes a Number of Experts.

The first considerable quantity of a high explosive to be fired from an ordinary gun against armor was sent against a 12-inch Harveyized plate at the Sandy Hook proving grounds recently. The projectile was a shell invented by Willard S. Isham, carrying 129½ pounds of explosive gelatine and weighing, loaded, a little more than 1,000 pounds. It was fired from an ordinary 12-inch sea-coast defense gun, with a reduced charge, so that the velocity of the projectile at the plate was about the same as if it had been fired with a full service charge of powder at a distance of two miles. The plate was backed with square oak beams and 20 feet of sand. The beams were so arranged as to represent more strength than the ordinary framing behind the armor of a battleship. To make the test conform yet more to the condition of firing against an armored battleship, the plate was set at an angle of 45 degrees to the line of fire. There is no form of armor-piercing shell made that will perforate Harveyized armor plate set at that angle, and it was not expected that the Isham shell would penetrate it. In fact, there was considerable diversity of opinion as to just what it would do, and a good many persons were interested in the results of yesterday's test. There was still doubt as to what had happened when the testing party started for the scene of the explosion from the firing point. The thick, dark smoke from the explosion of the shell showed that the full energy of its contents had not been developed, owing to an imperfect detonation. If perfectly detonated, a perfectly white smoke is made. In spite of the imperfect detonation the plate of armor was dented in about two inches and was blown through its oak backing and through a corner of the big sand pile, 17 feet from where it had been set up.—New York Sun.

Electric Power from Waterfalls. Electric power derived from the water falls of Tivoli, which constitute one of the most famous gems of Italian scenery, is now transmitted about fifteen miles across the Campagna to illuminate Rome and to drive the tramcars, whose presence in the streets of the Eternal City is so striking a reminder of the universality of modern practical science.

FRANK S. BAINES MAKES LARGE SALE

SELLS LEAF TOBACCO VALUED AT $33,000.

Eleven Hundred Cases of the '97 and '98 Crops Are Involved—Eastern Dealers Purchase the Majority—Erecting a Large Warehouse in the Capital City.

Frank S. Baines of this city has sold 1,100 cases of leaf tobacco to the Collins Cigar Company, Pittsburg; Sutter Bros. Chicago, and Andrew Schaub, Pittsburg.

The transaction involves $33,000. In local and Madison warehouses the greater part of this tobacco is stored. The grade of leaf consists of binders of the '97 and '98 crops in Dane and Rock counties.

At Madison the masons have begun work on the basement of the new tobacco warehouse to be built by Mr. Baines on the line of the Milwaukee company, just east of the Sutter Bros' mammoth structure. The plans call for a structure 48 by 128 feet with a basement and cement floor 8 feet in the clear, the upper part being two stories high. It will be a frame structure covered on the outside with corrugated iron, brick finish, similar to the adjoining warehouse. Eight carloads of Genesee limestone, the hardest and best building stone in the state, have arrived and the work of laying the wall is fairly under way.

Al. Eilt of Janesville has the contract for this work but will employ Madison men as far as possible. This will also be the case with the firm of Knox, Hazen & Daily of Janesville who have the contract for the carpenter work. The building is to be completed in time for the winter work.

DENY REMARK MADE AT MURPHY MEETING

EVANSVILLE EDITOR TAKES EXCEPTION.

Says That the Cut-Off City Is a Most Moral Place—Requests Janesville Parties to "Put Up or Shut Up"—Offers a Reward of Ten Dollars.

At a recent meeting of the Frances Murphy Temperance League held in this city, one of the speakers stated that when he was a drinking man in Evansville he found no trouble at any time during day or night in securing liquor. To this remark the editor of the Evansville Enterprise takes exception in the following.

"There has been but one arrest for drunkenness in this city this season and not one-half dozen persons seen on our streets in an intoxicated condition. The editor of this paper has a standing offer of $10 to anyone who will prove to us that a druggist in this city sold liquor to a single person for any but mechanical or medical purposes, or to anyone who has become intoxicated from it. We know that the remark is often made, even by some of our citizens, that our druggists and others sell liquor to drinking men who have become intoxicated from it, but it is not true; a more quiet, orderly place, clear from intoxication, could not be had, and such remarks as the above are base falsehoods and the parties making them are respectfully requested to 'put up or shut up'."

An Ancient Custom Observed.

The ancient custom of presenting a fitch of bacon to each of those married couples who could swear that "in a twelvemonth and a day they had repented not in thought any way" of their married state was observed, with all the old ceremonial, at the small village of Dunmow, in Essex, England. The ceremony was held inside a marquee erected in a field. There were two couples for trial by the jury of six maidens and six bachelors. The jury returned a verdict in favor of the claimants, who were accordingly awarded, amid cheers, a fitch of bacon, gaily decked with ribbons and rosettes. After the trial the couple were chaired and carried in processions, and the attendant fun and feasting were maintained until a late hour.

Had an Unpleasant Experience.

Henry Fredenburgh, while fishing at Catskill recently, had a rather unpleasant experience. A monster sturgeon caught its head in the meshes of a net handled by Fredenburgh, and while he was striving to fasten a rope about his gills, the boat lurched and the fisherman tumbled into the net. After floundering there some time with the sturgeon, Fredenburgh succeeded in grasping a rowlock, but was unable to free himself from the net. The big fish, still entangled, made a dash for liberty and for ten minutes dragged net, boat and fisherman about the river. Then Jacob Conine, a partner of Fredenburgh, came in a boat, cut the net, released the sturgeon and assisted Fredenburgh into the boat.

Thoughtful Generosity.

A fine exhibition of thoughtful generosity is that displayed by the widow of M. Heriot, who was one of the founders of the great dry goods store, the Louvre, in Paris. She has announced her intention to give $200,000 to the present company for the creation of a pension fund exclusively for those women employed in the store, who, by reason of age or infirmities, can no longer work. Only those whose salary has not exceeded $1,000 a year can be candidates for this pension. Mme. Heriot was herself employed in the Louvre before her marriage. She, therefore, knows by experience the benefit that such a pension fund would confer on a class of hard-working women.

Board of Missions Out of Debt

Madison, Wis., Oct. 26.—This is the third day of the convention of the Women's Board of Missions. The report of the treasurer, Mrs. J. B. Leake of Chicago, showed that this is the first convention in thirty years when the board was out of debt. In addition, Mrs. Leake reported a cash balance of $1,000 in the treasury. Over $80,400 was raised during the year, an excess of $900 over last year and an excess of about the same over the amount expected.

Addresses were delivered yesterday by a large number of missionaries visiting this country, each detailing the conditions prevailing in his respective field. Last night the meeting was presided over by President Charles Wendell Adams of the university, and Rev. J. L. Barton of Boston, delivered an address on the modern missionary movement.

A PARIS EXPOSITION NOVELTY

The Imitation Voyage Which May be Taken on the Grounds.

Possibly the most striking of the many novelties which will be offered to the visitors at the coming Paris exposition will be the "Mareorama," as it is called. This is a great model ocean steamer. It is arranged precisely like one of the transatlantic vessels, has a crew and captain, and even the motion of a ship speeding through the waves. It does not move from the spot on which it is erected, but to those on board the illusion promises to be perfect. The passengers are supposed to be on a journey from Marseilles to Constantinople, and as the last bell sounds "all ashore" the harbor of Marseilles seems to recede from the vision, the vessel passes out to sea, and all of the scenery of the coast passes in view. This is done by a large number of paintings which unroll in panorama fashion, and are so realistic that the observers, if not over critical, may really imagine that they are taking the sail. The vessel rocks and throbs as if it were really on the ocean, and this is brought about by the machinery which gives the vessel the required motion. Meals are served and if you are not careful you will find your soup in your lap. Genuine seasickness will be the portion of all predisposed to that ailment, and it will be almost as if the actual voyage were taken, except that it will last but a short time. The coast of Algiers, Tunis, and much of the Mediterranean sea will pass before the eyes of the passengers, and at last, the Golden Horn, the port of Constantinople will be entered. The painting of the panorama has been entrusted to Hugo d'Alevis, a graphic artist who has depicted the scenes in all their natural beauty. It will be a cheap and speedy method of making the journey, not to mention the novelty of experiencing all of the pleasures and some of the perils of a long sea voyage, without the least danger of shipwreck.

EXPECT BIG BATTLE TODAY.

Boers in Overwhelming Force Unite to Crush British.

WHITE AND YULE TOGETHER.

Martial Law Proclaimed Throughout Natal—Free State Forces Join Gen. Joubert's Army—Early Sanguinary Fight Predicted.

London, Oct. 26.—Martial law has been proclaimed throughout Natal, and the governor-general has called out the rifle associations for the defense of Pietermaritzburg.

London, Oct. 26.—The proposed attack of the combined forces of Sir George S. White and Gen. Yule on the Orange Free Staters who are supposed to be coming through Tintwa pass is still to be realized so far as any reports reaching London are concerned. The British continue to stand in readiness for battle, but, apparently, the enemy is still out of sight.

All reports from the front predict an early, sanguinary fight, but, unless the action comes quickly, Gens. White and Yule will have to meet not the Orange Free Staters alone, but the combined forces of the Transvaal Boers and the Free Staters, under Gen. Joubert.

The fact that the Free Staters did not make their expected appearance yesterday through Tintwa pass leads to the well-grounded belief that the Boers have been made aware of the British concentration and have turned their course so as to join Joubert's Boer force without interruption.

In case the two united forces collide it is quite likely the most important engagement of the war will be fought.

The war office is still in the dark regarding the true size of either Joubert's or the Free State legions, as the estimates range all the way from 16,000 to 30,000.

The combined total size of the two British forces was Tuesday night given as from 10,000 to 12,000. Yesterday, however, the figures were reduced to 7,000 or 8,000 men, which are all that can be spared from Ladysmith and other points, which must necessarily be guarded, and whereas it was on Tuesday claimed that the British had a total of fifty guns it is now stated that they have only thirty-six.

If this is true the Boers have at least twice as many men and an equal number of guns.

The situation is not the best the British army has seen by any means.

The skirmish described as a mere "brush" between Sir George S. White and a Boer force of unknown size on Tuesday proves to have been more serious than supposed. The British report their own losses as thirteen killed and ninety-three wounded, with three missing. The circumstances attending the fight are obscure, but it would seem that the Boer force attacked was not the main body of the Orange Free Staters, and that the fight saved Gen. Yule from what perhaps might have been a serious battle, and allowed him to join Sir George S. White is certain.

Sir George S. White's dispatch to the war office substantially confirms the dispatches of last night of the meeting of the two British commanders. Apparently Gen. Yule began his march on Monday night, and on Tuesday sent messengers across the short intervening country to inform Sir George S. White of his movements. Obviously there was a large force of Free Staters in the vicinity of the skirmish at Rietfontein, and the great care shown by the Ladysmith contingent to strongly occupy a northern position, so as to cover the retiring forces, proves this. Hence it is apparent that Sir George S. White and Gen. Yule deferred junction till noon yesterday.

No little mystery was furnished by telegrams relating to the fate of the Eighteenth hussars, sent in pursuit of the Boers after the taking of Glencoe hills. The Eighteenth hussars became separated and it was reported that one squadron was missing. A later message said that the hussars had all returned to camp with the exception of one squadron, whose whereabouts was unknown. George W. Stevens, the Daily Mail's correspondent, and who is considered to be one of the most reliable men in the field, wires that the troop of missing hussars has now reached headquarters.

An official statement from the war department, however, raises the cloud of doubt. It states that the whole squadron of the Eighteenth hussars, under Lieut.-Col. Moeller, is presumed to have been captured by the Boers. Neither time nor place is mentioned, thus increasing the mystery.

Bennett Burleigh, the Telegraph's Ladysmith correspondent, wiring under date of last Monday, says:

"Thirty of the Eighteenth hussars, sent from Glencoe to intercept the retreat of the Boers from Blandslaagte, have been unable to return, the enemy interposing. Under Sergt. Baldrey they bravely fought their way across the Biggarsberg, the enemy pursuing them and firing at them at 300 yards' range along the passes. They arrived at Ladysmith at 10 o'clock this morning. Three men are missing through the breakdown of their horses. They will probably turn up later."

The Boers used a Maxim. Their lieutenant, with a party, was driven back to Glencoe. The hussars were fired at as far down as Modderspruit. "Boer patrols this morning fired upon the burying parties from Blandslaagte. The troop of the Eighteenth hussars, which pursued the defeated Boers, took forty prisoners."

The total British losses in Natal in killed, wounded and missing up to date is given at 597, divided as follows: Officers killed, 18; wounded, 55; rank and file killed, 76; wounded, 435; missing, 13.

GREAT BRITAIN'S SERIOUS DANGER.

Russia and France Believed to Be Prepared to Strike a Blow.

London, Oct. 26.—The New York Tribune correspondent cables: "It cannot be doubted, whatever may be the attitude of reticence or even denial on the part of the officials, that the superfluous proportions of the army dispatched under Gen. Buller to the Cape, with the activity that prevails, points to expectation of possible serious complications with foreign powers. Russia and France are the powers indicated. To have a British fleet in readiness and to dispatch a large force to the Cape under a commanding officer, and staff, who would direct British arms in the event of a European war, must be regarded as an extremely wise and prudent move on the part of the government."

"I have strong reason to believe that if the secret history of the present crisis could be told it would be found that the foreign offices of Great Britain and Germany have never been on more friendly terms. This fact must be taken into account by those seeking to forecast the future. Germany and Great Britain are acting together and hope to carry the moral support of America with them."

"Meanwhile the channel fleet is bound for Gibraltar, and the remarkable activity at the dockyards points to the mobilization of another flying squadron wherever it may be needed, and it will not be a demonstration of naval force against Germany this time. Every day 8,000 or 9,000 troops go out to the Cape, but the entire army corps will not be afloat this week."

Toronto Bids Troops Farewell.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 26.—Toronto citizens were much excited Wednesday over the departure of 350 volunteers to help Great Britain fight the Boers. Thousands thronged the streets to see the troops. The soldiers were presented at the armories with purses of gold on behalf of the city, and silver match safes. The officers were presented with expensive field glasses.

Halifax, N. S., Oct. 26.—The Nova Scotia, New Brunswick and Prince Edward's Island companies of the Canadian regiment of volunteers for the Transvaal joined forces at Moncton Wednesday and proceeded by special train to Quebec to embark on the transport Sardinian.

No Coalition by Europe.

Washington, Oct. 26.—Interference by continental Europe in the war between Great Britain and the South African republic is not expected by administration officials here. Mediation may be offered, but present indications show that there will be no coalition to compel its acceptance, and there is certainly no expectation on the part of the administration that the United States will be invited to join other powers in tendering its good offices to bring about a settlement of the war. Up to this time, it is stated authoritatively, the United States has not been approached by any power in Europe to use its influence to bring an end of hostilities.

Boers Are Not Beaten.

London, Oct. 26.—William G. E. Macartney, M. P. and secretary of the admiralty, in a speech at Stockton warned the public to prepare to see a severe struggle in South Africa within the next few weeks. It must be remembered that the British were dealing with an enemy who had proved stubborn, successful and well armed. He said the public must not be induced by reports of successful fights to believe that the British forces at present in South Africa are able to overcome the combined resources of the Transvaal and the Orange Free State before the arrival of an army corps.

To Give Equal Rights.

London, Oct. 26.—In the house of commons yesterday Joseph Chamberlain made the following statement:

"Whatever may be the result of the war and the premature talk of the result of the present war, does any one imagine that we shall fail to do for others what we claimed for ourselves, or refuse equal rights to the Dutch in the Transvaal which they refused us?" The house, by a vote of 224 to 28, then passed the second reading of the appropriation bill.

French Squadron Is Vigilant.

Paris, Oct. 26.—The New York Journal correspondent cables: "The French squadron in the Mediterranean has received orders to keep a sharp lookout on the movements of the British fleet. France does not contemplate taking any marked offensive action, but apprehension is felt both by France and Russia that some movement affecting the interests of both countries may be made by Great Britain. Vigilance is therefore essential."

TALK to Lowell.

GOVERNMENT FOR COLONIES.

Problem Which Will Confront House of Representatives.

TALK OF A NEW COMMITTEE.

Representative Tawney of Minnesota Favors the Creation of a Body to Deal Exclusively with the Ruling of Our New Possessions.

Washington, Oct. 26.—The next house of representatives will be confronted at the beginning with a proposition to create a new committee, to be known as the committee on colonies. Representative Tawney of Minnesota is the principal advocate of such a departure. He is prompted to this by the prospect of a renewal of the controversy as to whether the committee on territories or the committee on foreign affairs shall have control of bills and resolutions relating to the insular possessions of the United States. There was such a controversy over the reference of the Hawaiian bill last winter, which Speaker Reed summarily ended by referring the bill, which Chairman Hitt of the foreign affairs committee had assisted in preparing, to the committee on territories, thereby taking the whole Hawaiian question out of the hands of the one man in the house who had given most attention to it as a member of the Hawaiian commission.

There will be spirited opposition to Mr. Tawney's proposition from the men who expect to be on the committee on foreign affairs and the committee on territories, and also from those who are opposed to treating the islands acquired from Spain as colonies.

The more conservative members of the senate and house are inclined to the opinion that the wisest course is to leave these islands under the war power of the president for a year or two, until the people are better able to decide as to the merits of the various propositions that will be made for the government of insular possessions. A prominent member of the senate judiciary committee, after a conference with the president yesterday, expressed the opinion that the whole situation would be better if congress could be induced to leave the subject of government for the Philippines and Porto Rico alone for a year.

EGYPT'S
FALLEN RELICStory of the Great Temple at Karnak Whose Wreck
Is Now Complete.

BY C. J. BOWDEN.

The falling of nine columns of the temple at El Karnak sweeps away one of the most magnificent and celebrated relics of ancient Egyptian architecture.

For thousands of years the temple of Ammon has been unmatched in size and beauty. Tourists of this later day considered their Egyptian tour incomplete if they did not include this historic spot in their wanderings. Those who ascend the Nile by steamer generally spend a day or two in the neighborhood. The center of interest has always been the great hypostyle hall, which has been reckoned among the wonders of the world.

The Nile has been the greatest enemy to Karnak, but the forest of columns has through the centuries resisted its invasions. Much damage, however, was done by the inundation of 1887, and pillars long tottering and out of the perpendicular have, it appears, at length given way. Many more would probably have fallen long ago but that they are supported by inclined planes of debris. Under the guidance of French antiquarians the natives have of late years done much in the way of shoring up columns which have seemed on the verge of tumbling.

The great hall of Karnak, the most notable of the monuments of the Egyptian Thebes, is 170 feet long and 320 feet wide. The stone roof was supported by 134 columns, the loftiest nearly 70 feet high and above 72 feet in diameter. There are 16 rows of these columns, the largest of which require six men, with outstretched arms, to span them.

The temple was founded by User-tesen I, probably on the site of a still earlier temple. Originally it was but a small building, constructed of limestone and sandstone, with granite doorways. The inside was decorated with 16 solid pillars. The second and third Amenemhats added some work to it, and the princes of the thirteenth and fourteenth dynasties adorned it with statues and tables of offerings.

It was still unaltered when in the eighteenth century before Christ Thot-

INTERESTING ANTIPODEAN.

Author of New Zealand's Compulsory Arbitration Law Now Visiting Us. William Pember Reeves of New Zealand, who is now in this country for the purpose of visiting the Philadelphia Export exposition, is a most interesting antipodean. He is the father of the compulsory arbitration law which has put New Zealand in the forefront of sociological progress.

New Zealand is the only country in the world which has such a law. It has been in operation for five years. That it has worked successfully is shown by the fact that for four years there has not been a strike or any other form of labor troubles in that country. It is estimated that the law has saved New Zealand many millions of dollars.

The working of the law is simple to understand. When a labor organization has a grievance, it cannot order a strike. It must submit to official arbitration. The employer must do the same. Both must abide by the decision, and if either fails to do so punishments are provided. Of course there are details. In speaking of the measure which he furnished, Mr. Reeves says:

"It took more than a year to get the machinery of the law working smoothly, but since then there have been no labor troubles in New Zealand. The employer, whether an individual or a corporation, is the unit on one side. The trades union is the unit on the other. It would not do to allow any individual workman to make his private grievance the basis for a public hearing.

"New Zealand is divided into districts, and in each is a 'conciliation board,' elected by employers and trades unions in equal representation, with an impartial person, frequently a magistrate, to act as chairman. Any case may be appealed from the decision of this board and tried by the central court of arbitration. Whenever there is dispute or threatened trouble, either the employer or the trades union may ask for arbitration. But the workmen cannot strike, nor can the employer discharge them, while the case is pending, under penalties provided by the law."

Mr. Reeves is a New Zealander and was for five years minister of education and minister of labor in that antipodean British colony.

It was in the latter capacity that he drafted the law which has been in operation nearly five years and is pronounced a success in its operation by all classes. He is a tall, thin, nervous man of 45 years, with an expression of face which denotes constant thinking and study. He is now the agent general of New Zealand in London.

She evinced an interest in theology when she was less than 10 years old and a year later wrote her first sermon. Miss Sowles is now attending the public school at Prospect and after her graduation next year will enter a theological seminary.

Trenton, N. J., Oct. 26.—New Jersey's token of appreciation of the services of Rear Admiral William T. Sampson in the American-Spanish war, a beautiful jeweled sword, costing $2,000, was given to that officer Wednesday. Gov. Voorhees made the presentation.

A
Festival...

In which we gathered the triumph of the shoemaker's art, surpassing in up-to-date fitness anything yet approached. We know no limit when it comes to matter of styles. We don't attempt to "fit every foot" with a just freshly advertised one shoe. The makes that have made reputations through skill and brain, such as the Hanan for MEN and the John Foster for the LADIES, are as always, alone and The Best. It costs but a little more to have your foot PROPERLY FITTED, and time will tell which is the cheapest way—to buy a good shoe at first, or be all the time run down at the heel and dissatisfied. We realize it takes time to convince a good many people into this way of thinking, but from the numbers now fitted and wealing these makes our efforts are meeting with success.

A Hanan for a Man is $5.00 a pair.
A John Foster for a Lady is $4.50 a pair.
See them—they are the Best you can find.

SMALL AND BIG BOYS' REEFERS AND TOP COATS.

Our makers of juvenile attire offered us this year such a bewilderingly beautiful line of top coats and reefers that we have bought almost twice as many styles as during the last season, and therefore the range for your choice is much wider than ever before.

There are many beautifully braided reefers for the little boys but for the bigger ones the more manly "storm collar" is pre-eminently best.

The top coats in Covert and Whipcord, most of them finished with velvet collars, are very handsome and smart looking.

Top Coats from $2.00 to $6.50.
Reefers from $2.50 to $5.00.

IN OUR

Rogers, Peet & Co.'s

Fine tailored Suits for men we have a smart business suit in the popular stripes or in the blue serge, at $15 00, which for style and make-up no tailor can produce at twice the price.

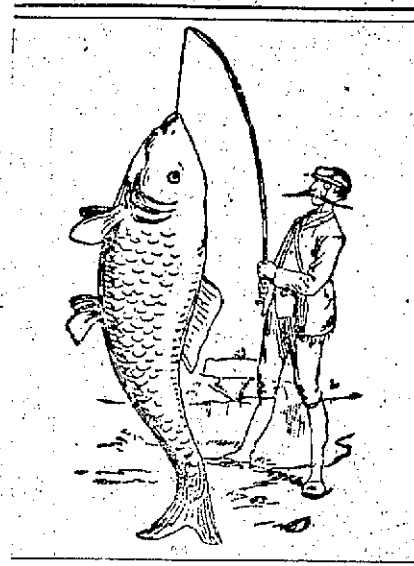

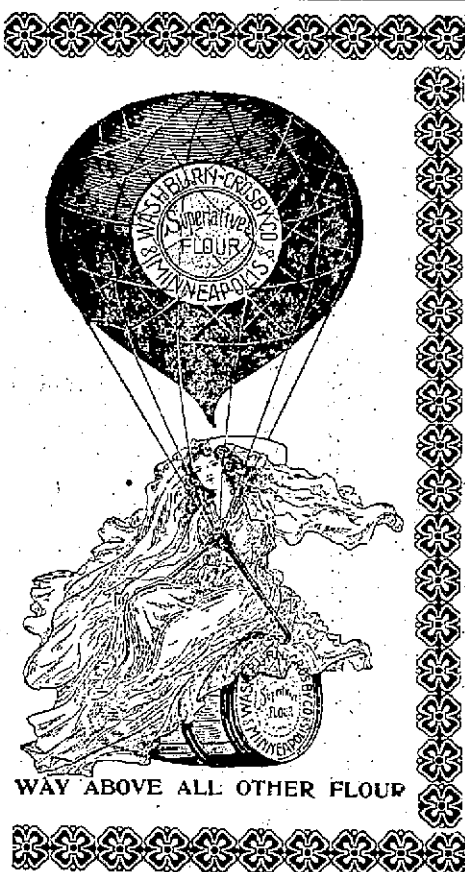

House Coats, double breast Jersey Jackets, Smoking Coats, full dress Coats and Vests, Fancy Vests, Bath Robes, &c.

MAJESTIC

Malleable Iron Ranges.

Yes, they're different from anything ever sold in this market. Better, too--a whole lot better.

Their first cost is little more than the old-fashioned cast iron or so-called "steel" ranges, but there's a difference, a vast difference.

The second cost of a cast iron cooking apparatus is often many times its first cost.

A Majestic Malleable Iron Range.

Soon "pays for itself", and lasts a lifetime.

A man from the MAJESTIC factory will be with us all this week to demonstrate to our friends that the MAJESTIC will bake biscuits in THREE MINUTES, and also to show you that if properly handled they will last a lifetime.

Every purchaser of a MAJESTIC gets a set of Majestic Ware worth $7.50—and cheap at that—ABSOLUTELY FREE! THIS WEEK ONLY
